

FURORA

Film Festival

Furora is an international festival focused on women who work in the film industry. As a platform, the Furora Film Festival provides female* filmmakers, especially the ones whose careers are still in the beginning, a chance and an environment to build a network. After the successful first edition in 2018, the event is on the way to its second round: Furora Film Festival 2019 will take place between 29.11. and 30.11. in City Kino Wedding and Centre Français in Berlin.*
